First item for tonight was John and Tammy Henthorn stopped by and introduced themselves. They are in the process of buying R Bar. They has some questions on the garbage and sewer. Also about the area around the building and snow removal. The city council and mayor welcomed them!

Council member Mathahs brought the fact that next year is 125 years for Scarville and was wondering about a celebration. The fire department has some ideas for this. Council member Langfald said she would ask around to see about volunteers to help with the celebration.

Mayor Harmon brought up the new business that is looking into building (The Coffee Tree Group). He asked the council if they had any thoughts on incentives for them to build here in Scarville. He talked to other small towns that they are currently working in. He brought up a few ideas for the council to think about and discuss. The new business would also possible want to build 10 to 12 new houses in town. They discussed items such as street improvement, sewer and water to go along with this business.

Next meeting will be October 2, 2023 @ 6:30 p.m.

There being no further business, a motion by Langfald was seconded by Sanden to adjourn at 7:34 p.m. Motion carried.

Doug Harmon, Mayor
