On January 8th we will swear in the 3 elected council members. Carla Langfald, Guy Langfald and Lynn Sanden.

Carla introduced a resolution of Public Purpose for the Home Base Iowa program. This resolution is to incentivize veterans to move to our town.

Mayor Harmon went over the current plans for the fire station remodel. He has sent out letters requesting bids. The bids are due to the city by December 27th. That way the council can go over them at the next meeting.

The founder and COF of the coffee tree group presented a question to the Mayor that is brought up to the council in regards to the property that they are wanting to build on. The city clerk is going to try and locate the paper work from the sale of the property to TNT. There was a discussion on how the sewer line will run through the lot. Also the Mayor discovered that there was no electric service at the building North of town. The clerk will contact Alliant Energy to get that turned on.

Next meeting will be January 8, 2024 @ 6:30 p.m.

There being no further business, a motion by Langfald was seconded by Mathahs to adjourn at 7:20 p.m. Motion carried.
