Melissa from Winn Worth Betco to discuss incentive information for having veterans move to our community. She brought examples of what other towns are doing and discussed what incentives the county may give. This will be another great opportunity for the Coffee tree club. The Coffee Tree is taking with the USDA to get a no interest loan with the help of WCTA.

John H. owner of the Scarville Bar is going to be doing a raffle to raise funds for the fire department. He also asked the council if there is a fund that he could get a get for funds to go towards a new walk-in cooler. Mayor Harmon is going to check and see if the TIF funds could be used for this. Or how the city could help. More to come on this.

Next there was a conversation by several residents in town that are having problems with another resident. Mayor Harmon and the council is not sure what they can do to help but they are aware of the situation.

Mayor Harmon is going to start getting bids for the buildings remodel for the Fire Department. More to come on that.

Councilman Mathahs had an issue with his sewer after the filter was cleaned a few weeks ago. He had sewage back up into his basement and must call a cleaning service pay to have it cleaned. Once he gets the bill the council will review it.

One of the council members brought up a house that is in disrepair that no one lives in. The said that she has seen several critters coming and going through holes in the foundation. Mayor Harmon is going to speak with one of the owner's family members about it. They also asked about the Christmas lights in town.

Next meeting will be December 4, 2023 @ 6:30 p.m.

There being no further business, a motion by Langfald was seconded by Rose to adjourn at 7:37 p.m. Motion carried.

Doug Harmon, Mayor
